LETTER

Dear Sir/Madam,

I'm writing to complain about the service, food and prices at your restaurant, The Salmon's Leap.

I took my friends out for a birthday treat to your restaurant on Friday 16th May and had an awful meal. The waiter showed us to a table next to the kitchen and we weren't able to change to another one. It was very noisy and waiters were pushing past us all the time. When the waiter brought the drinks, he spilled cola on my new dress and ruined it. My steak was burnt although I ordered it medium rare and the coffee at the end of the meal was cold. When I got the bill, it was much more than I expected.

APELLIDOS Y NOMBRE

I would like you to pay to clean the dress and apologise for spoiling my special day. I must say, I used to eat regularly at The Salmon's Leap. I hope that your standards will improve again.

Yours faithfully,

Louise Lewis

Doctor: — Good morning. Please have a seat here. What's the problem?

Paul Ryefield: —

Doctor: — Do you have diarrhea?

Paul Ryefield: —

Doctor: — Do you have any other symptoms?

Paul Ryefield: —

Doctor: — You mean you feel nauseous?

Paul Ryefield: —

Doctor: — When did the symptoms start?

Paul Ryefield: —

Doctor: — All right. Please take off your clothes to the waist and lie down there. ... Just tell me if it hurts when I do this.

Paul Ryefield: —

Doctor: — Okay. Let's hope it's just indigestion, but we'll need to run some diagnostic tests to be sure. We'll run a blood test and we'll also need a urine sample.

Paul Ryefield: —

Doctor: — Yes, I'll give you a prescription for indigestion tablets.
